AGREEMENT ON MINES

NOMINATIONS AND ASSISTED PASSAGE

In connection with the system recently adopted by the Government for encouraging immigration to this State, regulations have been framed whereby residents in this State may nominate relatives in Great Britain, also on certain conditions in other countries, for assisted passages to New South Wales. The following are the cases in which nominations are made:—

(a) Men domiciled in New South Wales wish to bring out their wives and children on satisfactory reports being obtained therefrom by the Premier.

(b) Persons domiciled in New South Wales who wish to bring out their parents to the old country, provided that the conditions of health and age are compatible.

(c) Persons domiciled in New South Wales desiring to bring out near relations, or

(d) Any settler already domiciled in South Wales who desires to bring out a woman whom he proposes to marry.

employment on arrival, or they can be in the way of taking up land or starting business, as the case may be. Having sensible advice from those conversant with conditions in the State and interested in its welfare, they are most likely to succeed in becoming prosperous and contented settlers.

Under the present system third-class passages may be obtained for £8 to £12, according to the class of accommodation, representing a reduction of from £6 to £3 on the ordinary fares. Second-class passages by the Orient Royal Mail line may be obtained for £28, a reduction of £10 on the ordinary rate.

On paying the net amount required for passages, according to the clause of accommodation selected, a certificate is issued by the Intelligence Department, which entitles the nominees to obtain the assisted passages from the Agent-General, provided the conditions are complied with.

DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD

Sir,—Will you kindly afford me space to say a few words of appeal to the philanthropic public on behalf of the above association, whose generous work is performed in so unobtrusive and unostentatious a manner that comparatively few of the general public are aware of the vast amount of good done to the class of poor sufferers who are not otherwise reached.

made by any public institution?

Passing through the Outer Domain on the way last fall I saw what appeared to be a party of invalids, and, upon inquiry, ascertained to be the case. The outing was organized and given by the gurnees to their patients, who rarely or never get out of their poor little homes, or get any amusement to break the weary monotony of existence. A gentleman had given the money for the purpose. The greatest expense was in getting the invalids conveyed to the meeting-place. They were brought in cabs, trams, and wheel-chairs, well supplied with rugs, blankets, pillows, cushions,

The association's work is nursing the patients in their own homes, especially chronic invalids, those discharged from hospitals incurable from paralysis, rheumatism, and other ailments, and some just suffering from debility and falling of old age.

later in charge. They occupy a house, No. 33 Upper William-street South, and there go each day to their respective districts, conducting most of the immediately surrounding suburbs and the poorer quarters in the city. The first takes Darling Harbour and Miller's Point; the second takes Woolloomooloo, Darlinghurst, and Woollahra; another, Surry Hills; another, Redfern; another, the Glebe, Ultimo, and Pyrmont; and another divides the day between the city and Newtown.

Waverley, Darlinghurst, North Sydney, and Burwood, Surry Hills, etc., and the money is collected by these branches for the maintenance of the nurses, and providing the treatment and comforts for the patients. There are a number of annual subscription meetings and a subscriber of 5s has the right of attending at meetings. The nurses usually have about 100 patients to attend to. These are the facts as I gathered from one of the nurses. When we consider the ground these ladies have to cover on all weathers in the performance of their disinterested ministrations to the patients and comforts of the most afflicted

If I have succeeded in arousing a de-

Pain after food, relieved slightly when wind is lifted, a feeling of sickness if awakened suddenly, headache, bad taste in the mouth; the recurrence of cold, heartburn, sleeplessness, all these are any of them may be present. They all show that the digestive organs are out of order and need a little help to get them equal to their work. Bile Beans give that help. Everything I ate would repeat on me. For four years I was a complaint afflicted me, although during

I found it was much benefited and continued with Bile Beans. Having finished the second box, I no longer had any further need of them, as I was then thoroughly cured. I have had no recurrence of the symptoms since, so I can fairly claim the cure is permanent. I never fail to recommend Bile Beans to fellow-sufferers." ## DUMA'S ULTIMATUM.

TO THE CZAR.

DEMAND FOR GREAT REFORMS.

PROTEST AGAINST REPRESSION.

LONDON, May 16.

Though respectfully drafted, the Duma's Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne is practically an ultimatum to the Czar.

It contrasts the promises made by the Czar on October 30 with the subsequent repression, and insists upon universal suffrage and Ministerial responsibility to the Duma. The Council of the Empire is the only means of impressing the country that the Czar is not answerable for it.

The Address in reply demands the abolition of the Council of Ministers in its present form.

It proposes to devote to the needs of the State the appanages of the Crown and the appanages of the nobles, and also proposes the expropriation of private lands.

The Duma awaits a full political amnesty as a pledge of the mutual agreement between the Czar and the people. The Council of the Empire is over-whelmingly against granting a full amnesty to political offenders.

Hopes of a peaceful solution of the situation in Russia are dimmed.

BOMB OUTRAGE.

ASSASSINATION AT WARSAW.

CIVILIAN AND SOLDIERS KILLED.

LONDON, May 15.

Police Captain Constantino was killed at Warsaw by the explosion of a bomb. Six men were severely wounded by the same explosion.

The man who threw the bomb shot another soldier with a revolver before he himself was shot.

A detachment of soldiers attacked the demonstrators, and killed three and wounded 11.

The terrorists had been hunting Captain Constantino since May, 1905, when he ordered soldiers to fire on a socialist procession, with the result that they killed 30 persons.

MILITARY STUDY.

SYDNEY UNIVERSITY.

A DIRECTOR APPOINTED.

LONDON, May 15.

The selection committee has appointed as the Director of Military Science at the University of Sydney Colonel H. J. Foster, of the Royal Engineers, formerly Military Attaché at Washington.

It is considered an excellent appointment, as the Director will be able to give scientific and strategic qualifications possessed by Colonel Foster. The War Office hesitates to part with such a valuable an officer.

Last year the Senate of the Sydney University, after a conference with the military authorities, decided to establish a department of military studies at the University. Under the arrangement made, the Senate has appointed a committee to select a Director of the department, which has been adopted will include military history and strategy, military engineering, military topography, military law, military administration, and organization, artillery (theoretical and practical), and drill. The Imperial Institute, which has been engaged for three years, will be required to devote to the department of military studies at the University, with the consent of the Senate of the University of Sydney. It is understood that the Senate of the University of Sydney has decided to accept the offer of the Imperial Institute, which has been engaged for three years, will be required to devote to the department of military studies at the University, with the consent of the Senate of the University of Sydney.

SINAI SETTLEMENT.

BRITAIN'S SUCCESS.

PROTECTORATE OVER EGYPT RECOGNIZED.

LONDON, May 16.

The Great Britain yielded to the demands of Great Britain regarding Sinai after Sir Nicholas O'Connor, the British Ambassador, had visited Tewfik Pasha (the Grand Vizier), and had communicated to him a statement causing Turkey to realize the peril of the situation.

The acceptance of the British demands constitutes the first recognition by Turkey of Great Britain's protectorate over Egypt. The ultimatum of the Porte was centered in the word "diminution" as implying a frontier.

IZET BEY DISGRACED.

Izzet Bey, who is a Pan-Islamite, and was the author of the Mecca railway, and the instigator of the Tahah occupation policy, has been disgraced.

COLONIAL MARRIAGES.

BILL IN THE LORDS.

READ THE SECOND TIME.

LONDON, May 16.

In the House of Lords the Colonial Marriages Bill has been read the second time without a division.

The Earl of Elgin, Secretary of State for the Colonies, explained that the Bill legalizes in Great Britain past and future colonial marriages with a deceased wife, after the death of the husband.

The measure was not retrospective in regard to property, dignity, or honours.

There was a strong feeling in the colonies upon the subject, Lord Elgin said, and it was to the interest of the Empire that the measure should be passed.

Viscount Halifax and the Marquis of Salisbury denounced what they described as a law movement to alter the motherland's law.

Lord Bessborough and Lord James of Hereford supported the bill, the latter saying that the Marquis of Lansdowne also supported it.

JAPANESE AMBASSADOR.

APPOINTED A MINISTER.

LONDON, May 16.

The "Daily Telegraph" Tokyo correspondent reports that Viscount Hayashi, Japanese Ambassador to Great Britain, who went to Japan on holiday last March, has been appointed Minister for Foreign Affairs.

He is the Administration of Marquis Saionji, and that Baron Komura (who was formerly Minister for Foreign Affairs) will succeed him in London.

INSURANCE LIABILITIES.

A STARTLING STATEMENT.

LONDON, May 16.

Mr. M. M. Dawson, Secretary of the Armstrong Insurance Investigation Committee, started the committee of Judicial Affairs of the House of Representatives by declaring that no fire insurance company in America knows whether it is solvent or not when it pays for its losses.

He blamed the law requiring companies to hold a reserve fund of 50 per cent. of its capital, whereas the reserve of the British companies was only in the proportion of 30 per cent., thus allowing the British companies a larger capital to meet losses and live through a strain.

BY ELECTION.

CONSERVATIVE SUCCESS.

LONDON, May 16.

The polling at the Dutch election district necessary by the resignation of Dr. F. R. Harris (Conservative) resulted as follows:

Mr. A. Bonar Law (Conservative) ... 6790

Mr. D. Williamson ... 1520

Majority for Mr. Bonar Law ... 5270

At the previous election Dr. Harris, the Conservative candidate, only had a majority over Mr. Williamson of 307 votes.

The increased majority obtained by the Conservative candidate at the present election is ascribed to dissatisfaction with the Education Bill, and the Budget proposals, especially the income tax.

DISARMAMENT PROPOSAL.

LONDON, May 15.

The Paris "Temps" states that the limitation of armaments is impossible, in view of the warlike preparations of Germany.

A resolution in favour of disarmament was adopted by the House of Commons, Great Britain undertaking to move in the matter at the Hague Conference, but it was decided that her Government would depend upon the response of other nations. The German press declares that Germany cannot agree to the proposal.

MASACRE OF MISSIONARIES.

LONDON, May 16.

The London "Tribune" reports that a massacre of French missionaries has taken place in the province of Nanchow, China.

COMPULSORY VOTING.

LONDON, May 16.

The "Standard" states that a special committee of the Canadian House of Commons has recommended compulsory voting at the Dominion elections.

LONDON, May 16.

A Royal Commission has been appointed to inquire into the vivification law.

A COMPANY'S LOSSES.

LONDON, May 16.

Thomas Brown and Sons, Limited, general merchants and warehousemen, declared a deficit balance for last year of £12,200, which has been carried forward.

THE DIRECTORS have considerably reduced the stock and other securities, and have written off a large amount for bad and doubtful debts.

REVOLT IN NATAL.

CONTINUED FIGHTING.

MINISTERIAL CRISIS AVERTED.

LONDON, May 16.

Colonel Mackenzie killed 50 rebels and in a bush.

Major Barker has burnt the kraals in the Ekombi district.

Five hundred rebels followed his column, but were repelled, losing five killed.

The rebels are now with their doctors. The women are waiting nightly in the bush over the dead.

COLONY'S FINANCIAL NEED.

GOVERNMENT BILL SHELVED.

A Ministerial crisis in Natal over the Unoccupied Land Tax Bill was narrowly averted.

The Chairman of Committees was voted out of the chair. The House did not wish Mr. Smythe (the Premier) to resign at the present juncture.

Mr. Smythe emphasises the need for revenue.

There are indications that the bill will be reintroduced, subject to slight amendments.

MR. JELICOE.

Mr. E. G. Jellicoe (who was an unsuccessful candidate at the last election for Wallington) applied at the Bow-street Court for an order to produce two informations against Sir Henry Edward McCallum, Governor of Natal—once laid by F. Colenso for alleged colonial marriages with a deceased wife, and once laid by F. Colenso for alleged colonial marriages with a deceased wife.

Mr. Jellicoe announced then that the application under the circumstances would be withdrawn.

It is understood that the elections will take place in December.

The committee went to South Africa to advise the Imperial Government as to the new Constitutions, especially as to the Orange River and Transvaal colonies. The committee consisted of Mr. West Ridgeway, a former Governor of Bombay, and Mr. Deakin, a former Director-General of Ordnance.

LONDON, May 16.

It was quite a feat that Mr. Reid accomplished to-night. South Melbourne is a strong Labour constituency, and the local town hall was crowded with over a thousand people.

There was a truculent section, which evidently was in attendance with the object of making things lively, and the meeting with less practical result than Mr. Reid would certainly have been broken up.

DISORDERLY INTERRUPTIONS.

Mr. Gratton Wilson, member for Corangamite, essayed the first address of the evening. He commenced by saying: You have represented me in the South Melbourne constituency. (A voice: Shame.) I don't want to say anything about him, but it is only proper that in addressing you I should select a text.

Considerable disorder and interruption took place straight away, and on resuming Mr. Wilson proceeded to make reference to the Federal Parliament. The strains of laughter being played off on the speaker, he was obliged to leave the stage.

Mr. Wilson then resumed his speech amid continued disorder from the back of the hall. Mr. Wilson said he was a socialist, and that he was a socialist.
